

Faculty Position - Program of Research or Scholarship - Nursing Acute, Chronic, & Continuing Care

The School of Nursing at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) invites applications and nominations for a full time, tenure track, faculty position that has a program of research or scholarship that aligns with the missions of the School of Nursing and UAB.

Candidates for this faculty position must be early career and have a well-identified research focus area that aligns with senior research faculty mentor, as well as be able to demonstrate potential for research scholarship through peer reviewed research publications and presentations at national conferences. Research immersion experience as part of a funded research team is preferred. Rank, tenure, and salary are competitive and commensurate with professional background and experience. A minimum of a PhD is required. Faculty may elect different degrees of emphasis on the teaching, service and scholarship components of the faculty role.

The School of Nursing's legacy of leadership is focused on innovative programs of research, education, and clinical practice as evidenced in more than 18,000 alumni serving as expert clinicians, executive nurse leaders, deans and directors of nursing programs, nurse scientists, advanced practice registered nurses, and other professional leaders.

For the complete announcement, visit: <https://uab.peopleadmin.com/postings/8490>